New School in Bangladesh!!

Dear Friends and Partners,

We give thanks to God for His continued faithfulness and for the many ways He is opening doors for the work of biblical education around the world. It is a joy to walk together with you in this shared calling. Through your partnership, the Lord is raising up leaders, strengthening the Church, and extending His Kingdom in places we could not reach alone.

One recent development we are especially grateful for is what God is doing in Bangladesh. Pastor Rashal Rana, who leads Freedom Charitable Bangladesh Foundation, has recently launched a Bible school that is now associated with AABS. This marks the first AABS-connected school in Bangladesh, and we rejoice in this new step forward. God is opening doors in a region where faithful, grounded biblical training is greatly needed.

Pastor Rashal is also working diligently to translate the MOTMOT curriculum into Bangla so that it can be used effectively among Bangla-speaking people. This kind of work requires patience and stewardship, and we are thankful for his commitment to making sound biblical teaching accessible in the heart language of those he serves.

This past November, our Administrative Director, Tim Ingold, had the opportunity to visit Bangladesh and spend time with Pastor Rashal, seeing the ministry firsthand. It was an encouraging time of fellowship and mutual strengthening, and it affirmed the importance of walking closely with our leaders on the ground. These relationships are at the heart of what we do—developing leaders who will, in turn, faithfully disciple others.

As we reflect on this, we are reminded of the importance of prayer. Please continue to pray for Pastor Rashal, for the students in this new Bible school, and for the ongoing translation work. Pray for wisdom, unity, and endurance, that the Word of God would take deep root and bear lasting fruit. Together, we trust the Lord to establish strong foundations that will impact generations to come.

Looking ahead, we sense that the Lord is continuing to expand opportunities for partnership in new regions. Our desire is to steward these open doors carefully, strengthening leadership, maintaining unity, and ensuring that every step forward is grounded in biblical truth. Through your generosity and faithful support, these opportunities become reality.

We are deeply grateful for you. Your prayers, encouragement, and giving make a tangible difference. Together, we are participating in something far greater than ourselves—the work of Christ in building His Church.

If you feel led to continue or deepen your partnership, we welcome you to do so as the Lord guides you. We value your faithfulness and are thankful for every way you stand with us in this ministry.

All for Jesus,

Tim Ingold, Administrative Director
