Our Network of Prayer Teams is Expanding!

Joshua Tuffour and Rev James Odoom, Ghana Prayer Team leaders

“Every great movement of God can be traced to a kneeling figure.” ~ Dwight L. Moody

Prayer is foundational in our lives and work as Christians. Our vision has been to have several layers of prayer in AABS and to someday have a Prayer Teams Facilitator who will initiate and maintain communication among our teams. This facilitator will equip and care for the teams, inspire them with stories/teachings on prayer and encourage the teams to fulfill their purposes. Through networking, each team will share requests with the other teams and receive support in their work. Teams can share answers to prayer and rejoice with each other. They can also exchange prayer pointers and practices to sharpen one another in this vital ministry. The Prayer Teams Facilitator will also develop more teams to support the expanding AABS ministry.

Rev Christopher Mwenda, Botswana Prayer Team Leader

“When we rely upon organization, we get what organization can do; when we rely upon education, we get what education can do; when we rely upon eloquence, we get what eloquence can do. And so on. But when we rely upon prayer, we get what God can do.” ~ A. C. Dixon

Nyla Martin, Prayer Teams Facilitator, with her husband Darrell

In addition to the prayer teams surrounding each of our National Directors, we now have three regional prayer teams! Our newest is a prayer team in Botswana, led by Rev Christopher Mwenda, which supports Dr. Jeremiah Mothibi, our Region Director who oversees the AABS work in the 10 countries of Southern Africa. We also have a prayer team in Ghana, led by Rev. James Odoom and Joshua Tuffour, which is serving the AABS-Africa Headquarters office and the West Africa Region Director. Marian Clapper leads our third prayer team which supports our headquarters in the USA. Each of these teams is also faithfully undergirding the AABS work around the world.

Nyla Martin has recently stepped into the role of Prayer Teams Facilitator and has begun to coordinate communications among these teams. We thank God for her eagerness to serve and for His faithfulness to steadily increase the prayer support in this ministry! May new teams continue to start up to move us forward and prepare the way for the work God desires to do.
