Two New Member Bible Schools!

We are thrilled to announce the addition of two member schools to our growing family: Broken Heart Healing and Restoration Ministry Online, School of Ministry (BHHRM School of Ministry) and Haitian Equipping of Laymen and Pastors (HELP). These institutions embody our vision of making Biblical education available and affordable in local churches and communities around the world.

1. Broken Heart Healing and Restoration Ministry Online Bible School. Rev. Lucy Bona, the founder of Broken Heart Healing and Restoration Ministry, has been diligently running an online Bible school for the past six years. Her dedication to equipping leaders and fostering spiritual growth has impacted countless lives. Currently, Rev. Bona is concluding two tracks of students—one focused on ordination and the other on training leaders. These classes will culminate in May, after which she plans to transition to using AABS MOTMOT materials. We are excited to support Rev. Bona and her ministry as they continue to empower leaders and nurture discipleship.

2. Haitian Equipping of Laymen and Pastors (HELP)

Mark Gillette, the Executive Director of TeamOne 27 Ministries, in collaboration with Daniel Jean, Director of Divine Ministries in Hope in Haiti, is spearheading the establishment of HELP—a school dedicated to training pastors and leaders in Haiti. Recognizing the need for accessible theological education in regions with limited educational resources, Mark and Daniel are preparing to train fifty pastors from the Jeremie region of Haiti. Their commitment to equipping leaders in underserved communities aligns perfectly with AABS's vision, and we are honored to welcome HELP into our network.

As we welcome these new member schools, we reaffirm our commitment to supporting and empowering leaders who are dedicated to spreading the gospel and serving their communities. Together, we can make a lasting impact on the global Christian community and fulfill the Great Commission. Stay tuned for updates on the progress and impact of these new member schools, and please join us in prayer for their continued success and growth.

We covet your ongoing prayers for the ministry! Pray for JC as he has just returned from trips to Ghana and Kenya. Pray that he has good times of processing the conversations he had while there and making plans for what God has for AABS moving forward. With our 16th International Conference coming up in Ghana in August, pray that the details and preparation will go smoothly and that many will be able to attend and be encouraged. We will also celebrate the 20-year anniversary of AABS during the conference.

We are very blessed to have these new members in the AABS family. Will you help us continue to resource them and reach others like them? Your partnership is invaluable to this work! Contributions may be sent to AABS, PO Box 556, New Holland, PA 17557, or given through our website, www.friendsofaabs.com. Thank you!

All for Jesus,

"Making Biblical education available and affordable in the local churches and communities around the world."
