Two New Schools in Two New Countries!

We are delighted to report that AABS has recently entered two new countries—the Dominican Republic and Ethiopia, our 18th country in Africa.

Our Dominican Republic contact is Pastor Elvis Lugo, whom Tim and I met when he attended our Bible School Directors' Equipping Conference that we held last October at Petra Church. He and his wife pastor a church in the Dominican. A school had been operating there until 2019. Although Ps. Lugo was not the director of that school, his colleagues agreed that he should restart the school using the AABS curriculum. His school is now in the process of becoming an AABS member.

Pastor Elvis Lugo

Pastor Tadele Asefa, leader of the Reach Beyond Network ministry based in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, was referred to us through Dr. Mothibi, our Southern Africa Region Director, and one of our southern Africa national directors. The Reach Beyond Network has been in existence for the past ten years and consists of over 100 churches with some churches having 200 members on average and others 500 members. The name of the school is Reach Beyond Bible Institute. Ps. Asefa hopes to enroll about 200 people from different parts of Ethiopia in their first term.

We are also pleased to report that another school, Corner Stone Bible School, is beginning in the Rhino Camp refugee settlement in northwest Uganda. Pastor Emmanuel is the Director. They anticipate starting the beginning of June with approximately 15 students.

Your support in prayer and financial gifts is what makes possible our ability to respond to contacts such as these. My passion continues to be to provide training, resources, and encouragement to the many church leaders in developing nations that have not had the opportunity for training in a Bible school or seminary. Thank you so much for your partnership in this vital work! Contributions may be sent to AABS, PO Box 556, New Holland, PA 17557, or given through our website, www.friendsofaabs.com. Thank you!

All for Jesus,
